CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—No warranty is given or implied by the description in the Catalogue. The genuineness or authenticity of any Lot is not guaranteed, but each Lot is sold in its condition at the time of Sale with all faults, defects, imperfections, and errors of description (if any).

2.—The Auctioneer reserves the right to withdraw, consolidate, or divide any Lot or Lots, or to submit them in any order he may deem desirable.

3.—Subject as hereafter, the highest bidder shall be the purchaser. The Auctioneer shall regulate the biddings and he reserves the right to bid or refuse any bidding, and in the case of any Lot upon which there may be a reserve to bid on behalf of the Vendors.

4.—Purchasers shall give their names and addresses, and, if required, pay a deposit of 5/0 in the £ in part-payment of the purchase-money of each Lot or Lots, such deposit to apply to the whole of the Lots of such purchasers. After a Lot is sold it shall be at the purchaser's risk, and it must be expressly understood that the Auctioneer will not be responsible for its safe custody. The remainder of the purchase-money shall be paid before delivery, and if one person purchases two or more Lots, the price of all must be paid before the delivery of any.

The Auctioneer reserves the right to make an allowance in proportion to the purchase-money of such Lot for the whole or any portion of a Lot not delivered.

Purchasers have no right to avail themselves of any set-off or other plea against the Auctioneer or the vendors for the non-payment of the purchase-money.

5.—No Lot will be delivered at the time of Sale, and no transfer of Lots will be permitted. Lots only to be delivered by the Sale porter after the Sale in exchange for the Auctioneer's delivery order.

All Lots to be paid for and cleared away before THURSDAY, the 15th of May, 1919.

6.—The Auctioneer shall be the sole arbitrator in any matter of dispute arising during or out of the Sale.

7.—Purchasers shall pay for any damage done by themselves or their agents during the removal of their Lots, the amount of such damage to be assessed by the Auctioneer.

As the Auctioneer acts only for the Vendor, he shall not be held personally responsible for any default on the part of either the Vendor or purchaser, nor shall he be held responsible for damage or loss by accident or fire.

8.—Purchasers failing to comply with the above Conditions shall forfeit their deposit-money. Any Lots uncleared by the specified time will be removed and re-sold at the expense of the purchaser, and any deficiency arising from such re-sale, and all losses and charges incident thereto, shall be made good by him.
